HUNT'S WHOLESALE LIST

Of the Leading Commercial Gladiolus for Spring 1928 Delivery

MISS MADISON (Boynton)

A clear bright pink, self color,. The nearest true pink of any gladiolus yet introduced and one of the most pleasing colors to be found. Large blooms, well placed on straight spike, a good grower and reproducer. It is in every way a very desirable variety and a distinct credit to Rev. Boynton.

It is rated by Gersdorff 98 Commercial. Received a Certificate of Award of Merit from A. G. S. Won the XXXX at the Ontario Trial Grounds, also the XXXX at Cornell Trial Grounds.

Other BOYNTON Originations of Exceptional Merit

CAPT. BOYNTON. White suffused lavender with maroon blotch in throat. Tall, graceful stem with blooms large and well placed. One of the most popular 'glads' of recent introduction. Won 1st. as best new seedling at the A. G. S. Show, best in its color class at A. G. S. Show. Received Certificate of award of merit from A. G. S. and also won the XXXX at Ontario Trial Grounds and Certificate of Merit by the Dutch Bulb Society.

Price same as Miss Madison.

MRS. F. E. BENNETT. So named by request of Dr. F. E. Bennett. Pure white with maroon blotch in throat, tall, graceful stems with large, well opened blooms 4 to 5 inches across. Received 1st. as best in its color class at A. G. S. Show this year (1927). A very fine variety and one that will be fully as popular as the 'Capt.' when known.

Price, large $2.50 each; medium $1.75.

ALSEBA. White with very soft lavender feathering which gives it a decided richness. Large florets well placed on straight stem. Rated 95 commercial by Gersdorff.

Price each, large $2.50; medium $1.50; bulblets 10 for $1.00.

IF THE JUDGES LIKE THE ABOVE VARIETIES YOU WILL LIKE THEM TOO

I have three new varieties, Ed Springer, Dr. Nelson Shook (Kunderd) and Sunburst (J. C. Davis)—all good prize winning kinds, but I have too many kinds and will sell these for about $\frac{1}{2}$ list price if all of each variety is taken.

OHIO SMOKE (C. I. Hunt)

A new seedling offered this year for the first time. An original coloring of smoky bronze over silvery sheen, an unusual and distinct coloring and one of the best of the smoky varieties. Large blooms well placed, 6 to 8 florets open at a time, good substance.

Price each $1.00.

MARY FREY (Gelser Bros.)

This is without question one of the finest varieties of gladiolus ever introduced. Beautiful lavender pink with ruby blotch on lower petal; a strong grower with large blooms well placed. Very early. Won 1st. as best new seedling and 1st as best variety in its color class at the A. G. S. Show. Was also first and only winner of the A. G. S. $500 Trial Ground Trophy.

Price each large $15.; medium $10.; No. 6 $5.

Gelser Bros. have other exceptionally fine new seedlings which they will soon be offering.
